

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

THE SCHOOL OF HISTORICAL STUDIES HAS PLEASURE IN INVITING YOU TO

The launch of

Urbanizing Frontiers: Indigenous Peoples and Settlers in 19th-Century Pacific Rim Cities

By Dr Penelope Edmonds

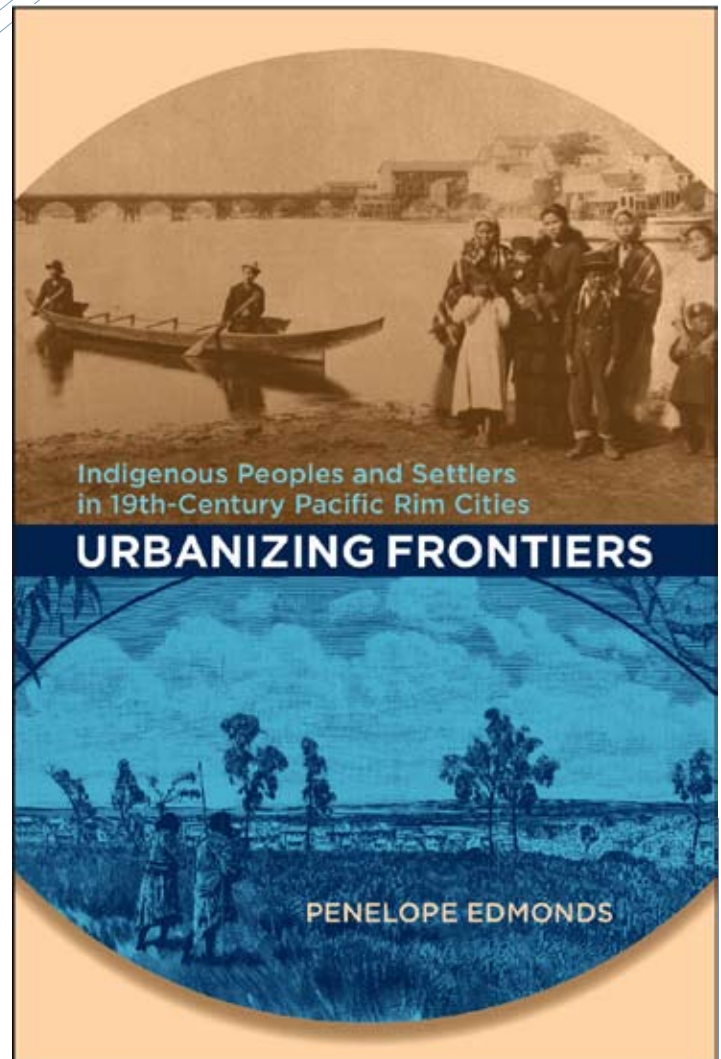

ARC Postdoctoral Fellow
School of Historical Studies
University of Melbourne

To be launched by Professor Patricia Grimshaw
Department of History
University Of Melbourne

The launch will follow the day-long symposium 'Gender and Settler
Colonialism: New/Transnational Perspectives'

"This book makes an original and highly important contribution to the specific historiographies of Canada and Australia, as well as the broader literatures on colonialism, urban development, and race ... Transnational comparative analysis is an increasingly important approach to understanding the past, especially in the study of colonialism and settler-indigenous relations, and to my knowledge no other study with this scope and theoretical bent has been published."

-- Lisa-Anne Chilton, Department of History, University of Prince Edward Island

Institute of Postcolonial Studies (54 Curzon St, North Melbourne)

Friday 19 March 2010
5.15 - 7pm

ENQUIRIES

Penelope Edmonds
8344 3355 edmondsp@unimelb.edu.au
www.historical-studies.unimelb.edu.au

Please note:
Cash/cheque only for book purchases